MESSAGE FROM THE VICAR OF THE CATHEDRAL

Dear Friends,

Through all the changing scenes of life we have journeyed through another year and have stepped into a new year. We have all had various experiences in our lives. In trouble and in joy we've felt God's presence and affirm that God is good all the time

It is with this assurance that we have settled back into our routines for the year. What is it that we carry with us into the year 2026? Themes during Christmas and Epiphany help us to understand "Jesus as the light of the world". These themes call us to be lights in the world, making a difference in our communities despite the challenges and sacrifices involved.

And it is not easy as we go out into the community and mingle with different people. Very often we get caught up with them and get dragged into their directions and the ways of the world. Rather than be the light shining and making the difference and leading others, we prefer to go with the tide and become followers.

Over the years, our Cathedral community has shone brightly through initiatives like the Community Kitchen and English classes for underprivileged children. Two years ago, I shared with the worshipping community here at the Cathedral that we could provide drinking water to the people on the road - the road sweepers, those going to BMICH for various events, etc. We must continue to explore ways to expand this into a mission of the Cathedral not only to provide drinking water but by providing washroom facilities including a space to refresh themselves.

During the Christmas season we reflected and will continue to reflect till the 2nd of February (the presentation of Christ in the Temple) the last day of the Christmas season, on various portions of scripture that.

reveals Christ as the light to the whole world and the work he came to do and what we ought to do ( 1 Kings 17.8–16, Is 9:1-2, 42:1-9, 49:1-7; Lk 2:11, 32; John 1:5, 14).

Christmas is a time of celebration, but the true spirit of Christmas lies in joining hands with the light of the world to make a difference in the world. Very often rather than find ways to get involved in actions that can make a difference in people's lives, we would look at various reason to avoid getting ourselves involved in such a mission.

Imagine if Jesus "though he existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, assuming human likeness. And being found in appearance as a human, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on a cross" refused to be the Messiah, what would be our plight? We are called to have the mind of Christ.

As we begin this year, we commit ourselves to God, acknowledging, "I am no longer my own but yours. Put me to what you will, rank me with whom you will; put me to doing, put me to suffering; let me be employed for you or laid aside for you, exalted for you or brought low for you; let me be full, let me be empty, let me have all things, let me have nothing; I freely and wholeheartedly yield all things to your pleasure and disposal". These are not empty words, but it is a pledge we make to live for Him, ready to make a difference in our communities and beyond.

As a worshipping community let us be ready to make a difference to the people beyond the walls the Cathedral, here and in our own communities, so that the world will know Jesus and see his light shine here and wherever you will be every day of your life.

As we plan our activities for 2026, I extend my gratitude to all who contribute to the life and mission of the Cathedral - the Ushers, the media team, the worship committee, the choir and organist, the altar servers, and all who make use of their talents to make our worship meaningful each week and the English class teachers and the Community Kitchen team who served faithfully till the end, and all who step in to give leadership to various activities of the Cathedral.

Rev. Madushani, served as the Assistant Curate from February 2025 at the Cathedral and has now moved to serve at SS. Mary and John Nugegoda, and at the Church of Christ the Saviour Maharagama. I am thankful to her for all what she has done at the Cathedral especially when I have had to be away on Sundays. I am also thankful to all of you for encouraging her and supporting her during her time here. We wish her well as she continues to serve the people in her new parish.

Rev. Miranga Peiris will serve at the Cathedral as the Assistant Curate as well as St. Paul's Church Kynsey Road. He will reside there, and will serve at the Cathedral during the week as well as when there are special services and activities. We welcome Rev. Miranga Peiris and his wife Sudharshi to our community.

The week of prayer for Christian unity begins on the 18th of January (The chair of ST. Peter) and ends on the 25th (the day of St. Paul). The resources each year are jointly published by the Dicastery for Promoting Christian Unity and the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches. The resources are prepared by ecumenical partners of a specific region and this year it is prepared an ecumenical group of Armenian Christians. The theme for the week is "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling" (Ephesians 4:4). The unity week service will be held on Sunday the 25th January at 3.30pm at All Saints Church Borella. I encourage you to participate in this service.

An Education Fund to support the children of the Cathedral staff has been started. This will be to give their children a good education in one of the Christian school. Your generous contributions will be greatly appreciated to make a change in the life of a child to have a good future. This fund will to be pay the school fees of the staff children each year. This year we have Diya, Solomon's daughter has been admitted to Methodist College and it is a commitment to journey with her to complete her education. You can make your contributions to the "Cathedral Staff children's Education Fund".

Retired clergy who live on the premises join us at our services on Sundays. We welcome Fr. Cyril Roche, his wife Nesam and their daughter Nilukshika and Fr. Sunil Ferdinando and his wife Aruni who have moved in from January. Do welcome them and speak to them when they join us for worship on Sunday. I suggest members of the Cathedral Worshipping community visit the retired clergy regularly and be their friends.

May God bless you all as you live out your lives as lights shining in the world that is searching for love, care and brightness.

Fr. Lakshman

This year is known as Year A in the 3-year cycle of the lectionary. The emphasizes is on the Gospel of Matthew. From Advent through Epiphany, readings focus on Christ's coming and manifestation. Lent continues with Matthew, with key passages from John, while Easter features John's discourses and Acts in the first readings. After Pentecost, Matthew is central. The season concludes with themes of Christ's reign and eschatology.

Weekly Services at The Cathedral

Every morning, at 7.30 a.m, a short Holy Communion service is held at the tranquil little Chapel (the Chapel of St. Joseph the Worker) at the right side at the entrance of the Cathedral of Christ the Living Saviour.

If you are marking a special day in your life, a day you would like to remember with prayers and thanksgiving to God, this service provides the perfect opportunity to do so with a special blessing. Be it a birthday or wedding anniversary, a commemoration of the death of a loved one, even a day when you began a new chapter in your life and you want to spend a few moments in quiet reflection, come to this morning service. It is where you can pray and worship in the company of a few and have a special prayer said for you.

The morning service is also ideal for elders who may prefer a shorter worship service than the regular Sunday Eucharist. The quiet confines of the Chapel offer a place for peaceful reflection.

The following morning services are held every day (Monday to Saturday)
7.00 am Morning Prayer
7.30 am Holy Eucharist

Know your hymns – “Guide me o thou great Jehovah”

“Guide me, O thou Great Jehovah” has been used for worship in congregations around the globe and across denominational lines. It was also incorporated in two of the most televised services of the last three decades, the funeral of Princess Diana of Wales (1997) and the royal wedding of Prince William and Catherine Middleton (2011).

The author William Williams (1717 – 1791) was born in Carmarthenshire, Wales to John and Dorothy Williams. According to Welsh hymn scholar Alan Luff, William grew up as an Independent and later a Calvinist, but had no aspirations to be a minister. In fact, he intended to be a doctor, attending school at the Dissenting Academy of Llwyn-llwyd, near Talgarth, Wales. It was near Talgarth that he first encountered the preaching of Howell Harris, which led to his conversion experience. Shortly after, he abandoned his Independent upbringing and desire to be a doctor to pursue ordination in the Established Church. In 1744, after being accused of several misdemeanors against the Church of England, Williams devoted himself to Methodism. The Welsh text was written soon after this in 1745.

Williams beautifully interweaves imagery from the Old Testament book of Exodus to evoke a sense of God’s guidance through strife. One of the reasons this hymn has influenced such a broad array of congregants is the universal subject of struggle. The hymn affirms the reality that God provides for us and redeems all wrong in the world. This God who provided for the Hebrew people wandering amidst “barren lands” with “Bread of Heaven” is still and ever will be a God of provisional grace.

The tune to which this hymn is sung today is known as Cwm Rhondda, a popular Welsh hymn tune written by John Hughes in 1907. The name is taken from the Welsh name for the Rhondda Valley.
